

GOOD Network 2020 Conference E-Newsletter

Inaugural GOOD Network Conference on Friday, February 28, 2020

Don't miss our dynamic conference sessions!

We start the day with a rousing dose of culture that rocks and end with shattering barriers to leadership! Along the way, we will be questioning the future of work and how we can be the best we can be in leading the way for OD professionals to ignite a flame within our organizations to continuously grow and evolve. Two different tracks help you target your interests and get the most out of your day. Vendors, poster presenters, and colleagues both new and familiar will also be happy to meet you informally over lunch for additional value and learning. Our venue at the UCF Rosen College of Hospitality Management provides the perfect backdrop with a dose of open air in the Florida winter which is sure to be beautiful.
