Learn about the origins of Hack Day at UCF, from inspiration to implementation. Gain insights to how Hack Day removed barriers between departments, how it inspires innovation, and how it guides a culture of open creativity. Learn how you can take these insights and incorporate them into your organization to foster collaboration and inspire ideas.

Our Presenters:

Ian Turgeon is a Senior Developer & Team Lead at the Center for Distributed Learning at UCF. He obsesses over thoughtful open source software and strives to build the best place for junior UCF developers to launch their own careers.

Jacob Bates is the Techrangers Team Lead in the Learning System & Technologies team at the Center for Distributed Learning at UCF. He has a Bachelor's of Science in Computer Engineering from UCF, is a huge fan of rapid prototyping, and has participated in nearly every Hack Day.

This program qualifies for 2.5 SHRM professional development credits (PDCs) through our partnership with UCF.

New Fall Date for the GOOD Conference - October 15, 2021

The Greater Orlando Organization Development Network sincerely cares about our members, speakers and collaborators. Creating an exceptional, safe in-person conference experience is our goal.

With the rising COVID-19 numbers and the growing uncertainty, we have decided to postpone the upcoming conference.

We look forward to seeing you on Friday, October 15, 2021.

Find all the latest info about the 2021 Conference on the GOOD Network website, including Speaker proposal applications.

GOOD Cares about our Members

2020 has certainly been a challenging year for all of us, and we know several of our current and prospective members are experiencing economic hardship due to layoffs and furloughs. Look for some good news to be shared soon about 2021 membership dues.
